After two failed marriages, and a bunch of unhealthy relationships, he starts to ponder that maybe, it wasn't the women in his life that caused their demise. Determined to revisit past relationships in hopes of finding out the truth, the good Dr. Reverend finds out that the truth is a hard pill to swallow. Now, he decides to share the facts of his findings with the women of the world. Praying, that understanding him, will help them understand men who think like him. In the end, he might just owe some women an apology. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
